

I do not want to be disturbed in my home. I do not want to be interrupted so someone can try to get money from me. If it is someone I have done buisness with before I know how to find them if I need them and want to use them again. If I can hang a "no solicitors" sign on my door I sure should be able to put one on my phone and on my computer. I just want to be left alone.